

National Ploughing Championships

25th - 27th September

3 Day Tour

IRELAND

2 Day
admission

One of the best showcases for Agriculture and Rural Industry in Western Europe, the National Ploughing Championships, this year will be held in Heath Park, New Ross, Co. Wexford. On the O'Dwyer's family farm, the show has an average attendance of 180,000 visitors and over 1000 exhibitors. An 80 acre trade arena featuring agri services and machinery, livestock, the motor trade, bio energy, forestry, home and garden, rural enterprise and so much more.

DAY 1

We leave Donegal and head to the south of the country for our trip to the National Ploughing Championships. Some comfort stops will be made along the journey. We will arrive at our hotel in Kilkenny in early evening.

DAY 2

We have a full day at the show today. One of Europe's largest farming festivals and a showcase of all aspects of rural life. Featuring national ploughing finals in tractor, vintage and horse ploughing, an 80 acre trade show of agriculture machinery, livestock, lifestyle, leisure, forestry, bio-energy, home, garden, food fair, craft village. Special events like vintage threshing and exhibition, hunt chase, fashion shows, cookery and craft demonstrations as well as topical seminars, traditional entertainment and loy digging. A packed programme of events for 3 days including lunches, competitions, celebrity guests, numerous live radio and television broadcasts and a tremendous atmosphere. A visit is a unique experience for all.

DAY 3

We will return to the show today, there's so much to see that you will need a second day to get round to see all the attractions on offer. For those who have been regulars at the championships you are likely to see some familiar faces. We depart the show in the evening for our journey home after an enjoyable experience.
